what we believe

the world is a better place with community and regional financial institutions.

And we intend to keep it that way.

That's why we put you – the financial institution – at the center of our modernization.

To help you innovate faster, differentiate strategically, and compete successfully.

With one goal in mind: to improve the financial health of the people you serve.

who we serve

Banks ●

Credit Unions ●

Fintechs ●

Accountholders ●

Whether you're struggling to grow revenue, improve the digital experience, mitigate financial crimes and fraud risk, improve operational efficiencies, balance IT demands, or focus on any other business challenge, Jack Henry™ is ready to address your organization's evolving needs. You can count on us to help you achieve short- and long-term strategic goals, advocate for positive change, co-create innovative solutions, and support open integrations with fintechs – who we see as changemakers. That's why we embrace opportunities to partner with them. We're working to solve for the challenges faced by people at financial institutions and their accountholders.

We call that people-inspired innovation.

9 key capabilities

We are committed to growing, supporting, protecting, and innovating for community and regional financial institutions through the technology and services we offer.

Digital Banking

We're pioneers of personal digital banking – reviving the vision of financial institutions being on a first-name basis with accountholders. We're offering a platform for personal, human-centered service that puts consumers first.

Payments

Dedicated to simplifying payments, we help financial institutions and businesses reinvent their payments strategies and modernize their payments platforms so they can get money into the hands of people when they need it.

Operations

Our scalable, flexible, and open technology operations solutions offer new levels of agility and efficiency to help financial institutions run their business, serve accountholders, process transactions, and manage complex mission-critical information.

Information Security & Technology

We're helping financial institutions proactively and effectively defend against today's complex internal and external threats, secure data and systems, enable regulatory compliance, and ultimately protect their reputations and assets – as well as that of their accountholders.

Lending

We are innovators committed to making loans more accessible to borrowers. We help banks stay ahead of the fast-changing digital environment with intuitive, appropriately simple lending solutions that give borrowers quick access to more types of transactions while improving consistency and visibility for staff members.

Financial Crimes & Fraud Risk

We help proactively protect financial institutions by leveraging advanced technologies, unique expertise, and insights that combat both current and emerging financial crimes and fraud threats.

Commercial Banking

We have solutions and services specifically designed to help financial institutions attract, serve, and retain diverse commercial accounts.

Customer & Member Relationships

We're focused on removing accountholder friction and delivering exceptional experiences for customers and members – offering the right service in the moment of need and relevance.

Financial Health

Financial institutions have a critical role to play in helping their customers, members, and businesses achieve financial health. We provide the technology, education, innovation, and leadership necessary to help them take the next step in helping their accountholders gain financial freedom to move forward.

i am jack henry.

our commitment

I am Jack Henry. An advocate for people in all that I do and a champion of innovation. Here to help community and regional financial institutions reclaim their trusted and primary position as the center of people's and business' financial lives.

I am a creative thinker and an entrepreneurial problem-solver. I listen and I inspire. I take ownership and am determined to remove barriers to success and create opportunities for advancement and growth.

I am part of something bigger than myself: a well-rounded ecosystem of diverse ideas, thoughts, capabilities, and experiences collaborating to create new connections. New possibilities. Committed to doing the right thing and whatever it takes – always – for my colleagues, clients, and community.
